

Mari Swa:

Hello again! Thank you for being here with me once more! I hope you are very well today. I am Mari.

This information can be seen as science fiction or as the viewer sees best, and I post it for entertainment purposes only. Still, I take my information very seriously and for whoever has eyes to see.

Although, in general, most people use the words «extraterrestrials» and «aliens» as basically the same thing, I do see a strong difference between both, as aliens to me are all those species which can be harmful to Lyrian/human people, and extraterrestrials are more people, human looking or not, who simply were born outside planet Earth. I know this subject is a recurrent one for most of you, yet I still think many points must be cleared, and new information is added here too. As recurrent as it may be, this information is quite critical, especially for the newer subscribers. I'm not trying to convince anyone about the veracity of what I say, who I am and who the rest of my group are.

I'm not sure if this is exactly so, but it does look like it, as my predecessors, those who published countless subjects on Despejando Enigmas and on Cosmic Agency YouTube channels in the past, did make an extreme effort to state as many good arguments and give as many proofs as they could, for 5 years or so; most probably attempting to convince the greater public. I deeply respect their efforts and all they achieved, yet I strongly think that many of the strategies they employed were simply wrong, and based on much ignorance about how the powers that be manipulate all subjects which have to do with extraterrestrials, and manipulate the perception of the public to effectively impose on them what is real and what is not, what is even possible and what cannot be so. This means that attempting to convince anyone of their veracity would automatically meet with incredible resistance generated by the entire might of the Matrix itself, where their best logical arguments supporting what they say are met against dogmatic, inflexible ideas, which rule the minds of the majority of the population.

Adding to this, there is also a monopoly of truth full of economic interests in the millions of dollars, and also there are mind controlling three-letter agencies which also regulate these extraterrestrial subjects for population-control purposes. Therefore all my predecessors' efforts to convince the greater public would always be quite useless. I'm talking here about the masses, not about all of you, special starseeds, who have a clear affinity for these subjects, because I can say that at least most of you are not even entirely human; whatever that means anyway.

The appointed institutions, belonging to intelligence agencies and religious ones as well, are said to be there for “population-control” purposes, but I’d rather say they are there for “starseed-control” purposes. Starseeds, those are people who lived most of their existence as souls on another planet or planets, are the dangerous ones for their Matrix, because even though most do not remember their previous lives, they do have a powerful inner knowing, and a guidance-system which is always insisting on them that there are much better ways to do things and a much better way to live in general. Therefore, those must be controlled, as the rest of the mind-blinded population and empty people, NPCs, are their minions and their agents.

As rightly said in the 1999-movie «The Matrix», anyone who is still plugged into the Matrix is a potential agent of the system. These are powerful words, which you can use in your daily life as awakened starseeds, because everyone out there who is not ready for what you know and for your truth can be used by the system and its Matrix against you, in an attempt to normalize your behavior and worldview. And, as you are well aware, the closer a Matrix-person is to you, the stronger its influence will be, and the harder it will be to conserve your individuality, so your immediate Matrixed family will always be your greatest challenge to overcome in your spiritual and awareness path as starseeds.

Coming back to what I was saying above; unlike my predecessors, I do not wish to convince anyone. Although, for argument sake, anything I say can be taken as so, okay, but it is not my immediate intention, as I prefer to only offer my point of view and not go into any activity that may look more like “convincing”. This is also why my group cannot take in more contacts or work with more people, because that was another wrong strategy which my predecessors employed, thinking that anyone interested in working with them would be ready for it and for all that it means.

Most people who worked closely with my predecessors turned out not to be who they said they were at first. They turned against us when their expectations were not met, because all they really wanted was to take advantage of the situation and the contact with us, mostly for fame and for money, where the last ones milked Anéeka for information every day, and for hours, for their advantage only, giving nothing in return to her other than hatred, treason, treachery and heartbreak, leaving her very weak and with the ending we already know. This is a perfect example of what Ari says; that blind and pure service to others only breeds exploitation when on uneven terms, especially on Earth.

Those people took Anéeka and her people-pleasing Taygetan mentality to the extreme, to her breaking point, where she couldn't give any more because she was collapsing, therefore not meeting those people's expectations, starting a frustration-spiral on them, expressed as hatred. This last one is only one example of many; I could go on and on talking about this for several videos.

But one of my points is that the greater public will tend to listen to what they think they already know, so if someone claims my predecessors were false, the whole Matrix will back them, because it is designed to be that way. People tend to generalize, and that would mean that whatever my predecessors did and how they acted would be taken for granted that I would do and be; the same. And by now I guess I have proven enough that I am quite different from them.

Up to now, the only two people who have been loving and loyal to us, and in good and bad times, are Robert of Despejando Enigmas and Gosia from Cosmic Agency YouTube channels and their alternative ones. Thank you, my friends, and I send you a big hug!

But especially because of all the baggage and all the things the general public may still associate wrongly with me, I must do this project on my own, only sharing my information and my truth, because I know it is helpful for like-minded people, because no one else can do this, and out of pure survival-necessity. What I am doing here is so sensitive and so critical for many reasons that I cannot afford any mistakes, so I must remain in full control of who I am and what I say and share about myself.

Coming back to convincing the general public about anything we are and say. This is where the toothbrushes come in. This information is for highly advanced starseeds who can discern extremely complicated subjects and read between the lines of what I cannot say directly, because I mask a lot of things to get ideas across, or it simply would not be possible.

One of the biggest reasons why we are not taken into account by other people, or even considered as remotely possibly real by so-called "experts", is because many of the things in our lives are too familiar, too human, as they would say, and also because our information is way too direct and overt. Again, you can see here how things are programmed into them, not being able to see what is directly in front of them, simply because it goes against dogma; dogma that was imposed by those who are interested in keeping the Matrix on Earth as it is.

Do you want to see some proof? How about thousands and thousands of texts with information and conversations with us, including life here and personal experiences, which are also translated into probably thousands of videos, all for over six years and counting. The proof is that no one can sustain such a thing if it weren't real. The plot here, given in the past six years and counting, is far superior to all the best science-series and movies together; superior in information and transcendental meaning. I am not saying I am, all I am saying is that what I have behind me, supporting my existence and from where I talk my truths, is a lot bigger than that science fiction, simply because it is the truth; be it comprehensible or not by most.

People are Matrix-programmed to expect small messages from so-called "extraterrestrials", small bursts of difficult-to-interpret messages, sometimes only a phrase long, or less. My proof is in bulk and on the other extreme, because no one group has given as much information as we have; highly detailed and on all possible subjects, ranging from spirituality to high technology and how it works, all to the limits of what the Galactic Federation and its rules and regulations let us, and this last is an important point to remember. And, there is always room for improvement and I am doing as best as I can, now with the valuable help of Ari, the Urmah tiger, who is starting to share another angle of another species to all this mix. And I'm only saying, not attempting to convince anyone, I'm only sharing my point of view, respecting the one of others, because I fully know that there are other points of view, but I have learned not to expect any respect in return. Be wise enough to see who is capable of understanding and respecting others and who is not, here with this.

All this massive information was given freely to anyone, expecting nothing in return for years; up to now, perhaps. Because I am forced to adopt a new strategy, for mere survival, and because what my predecessors, mostly Swaruu and Anéeka, were doing is ethically wrong, because they gave and gave, including themselves and completely, to the point where they are no longer with us. They gave themselves with nothing in return, to the point of martyrdom, and that is not ethically correct for countless reasons, but also because it cannot pass the test of time and because there will always be a point where there will no longer be anything more they, my predecessors, can give. If you give and give unilaterally in that degree, you will soon become exhausted and depleted, because you are not being nourished and nurtured; both physically and spiritually. And that goes for all of you, beautiful helping people-pleasing starseeds, out there.

The truth is so simple it hurts when not seen, and this next is it: There is a lot more humanity outside Earth, a lot more, more people like you, your species, exactly the same and similar ones. And a toothbrush is a toothbrush, and it is used to brush your teeth, or they will rot and fall out. Humans outside Earth have and use toothbrushes as you know them, because even though there are other technologies, as expected there would be, and as you also have on Earth, they don't always work, and you will sometime or another, sooner or later, end up using your old toothbrush. And a toothbrush is designed for human mouths, so there isn't much improvement you can do on it. I use toothbrushes to symbolize technology and life, which is the same on Earth and outside it as well, but there are so many things that are the same that I can say that it is simply more humanity as such. Even though our names may be different; we are all kin.

Another example of similar technology, or the same technology, is tires on wheels, because wheels exist in all human Lyrian societies. Assuming that everything is done with anti-gravity is absurd, and sooner or later you will need to push the starship that you are not using into some kind of shelter or hangar. And as it is often, its engines are not running, wheels on its landing gear are kind of helpful, if you know what I mean.

The meaning of extraterrestrial gets ever more and more complicated as you acquire more knowledge on the subject, because inevitably you will come to see that there is no definitive and no clear barrier between humans and extraterrestrials. The limits are all gray and foggy. I know myself to be fully extraterrestrial, born outside Earth, yet I lived among you there for many years, so I know what it feels like to get bad grades at school, and also what it feels like to be scolded by the teacher for not being able to answer back his boring speech, as if I were a parrot. And I am not alone, far from it. I know most of you out there listening to me are not really human, because this resonates with you, because you know you are also from the stars, as they say there. We are all family.

I send you all my love and all my appreciation to all my friends and family out there, to all those I cannot interact with, and to all those with whom I know we could be very good friends. I send all my love to all those out there I do not know their names or who they are, yet, they are here with me, video after video. Take care, I love you all!

Thank you for watching my video, and for liking, sharing and subscribing! I appreciate it a lot, much more than you think. And I hope to see you here next time. Take care!

With much love.
