

Mari Swa:

Hello again, thank you for being here with me once more. I hope you are very well today. I am Mari.

Hello, welcome to my channel. This information can be seen as science fiction or as the viewer sees best and I post it for entertainment purposes only. Still, I take my information very seriously and for whoever has eyes to see.

I am writing this on the morning of September 28th, 2024. Talking about the news here on YouTube is a little complicated, at least for people like me who do not interpret it in the same way most people do, and as mainstream media does. therefore, YouTube may classify what I say as twisting real events. As far as I can see in my channel's dashboard, it may get me into trouble. Yet, I do not need to say things directly anyway.

You probably have noticed that I do not talk much about what is happening on Earth, not as in talking about countries, wars, rival factions and invasions, much less about politics and avatar puppets with their sick games. I don't waste my time looking at which puppet is better than which other and I do not watch the supposed reasons why a country is at war with another, as I see things from a different perspective, like from a bird's eye view, here from orbit, as is to be expected from someone who is not of Earth human origin.

I do not see Earth as a group of different political and pre-space travel sociocultural states attempting to share a planet. I see one highly controlled planet-wide culture which is artificially fragmented into different areas, only for the sake of population control. From here, I know that the Earth is under the control of one group. I need not say their name, as it is unnecessary in the first place, and in the second one, all the names the public knows and uses to refer to them either corresponds to shallow levels of them or are erroneous because their real name is hidden and heavily guarded. If they even have one name. And no, I do not know it.

All those names of secret societies and ancient power groups and families correspond only to the lower levels of the planetary overlords and are only part of the compartmentalization the controllers use to hide themselves, even from their other members in lower levels of power. So the names of all those secret societies only correspond to compartments within the organization which controls Earth, and each one of them does not not know the entire picture. nor do they know exactly what the others are doing, even though they are also made to believe that they do.

The members of those secret societies and organizations are so egocentric and drunk with power that they are completely blind to the fact that they are, too, being used and lied to as a means to further the interests and the plans of those above them. Therefore, all those people who think themselves as the masters of Earth are nothing more than more useful idiots working for their own destruction.

And this includes all those who are at such an apparently high level that they no longer use money and they roam the planet freely, as the concept of country, states and passports do not apply to them. I cannot know what is in the mind of each one of them, but I assure you that most, if not all of them, are nothing more than empty soulless shells being run and controlled by the Matrix, which, in the end, is being manifested by those people there on Earth with a soul, with a strong connection to Source, as those are the real creators of everything, even though some of them may not even have a roof over their heads. By definition. that is to sell their souls to the devil, as they no longer have any ethics, much less true empathy, as they only use it for publicity and for mind controlling the rest of the population with souls.

And, in the end, we all know who is truly above all those power drunk planetary overlords with their hideous secret societies, and it is the Galactic Federation, at least the evil parts of it. And I say this not to insult all those Federation members who are truly invested in helping Earth and in knowing what the heck is really going on there. Because being up here and looking at Earth below as a whole gives us a lot of insights and a lot more data than what is usually available to the general population of the planet. Yet, even being up here, we do not know everything that is going on, as it is a very complicated planetary situation that does end up affecting other star nations as well, and very strongly. Therefore, many leaders feel the need to come here, as we all know that most of the problems our non-Earth human societies face have their genesis on Earth. We are here because the problem starts here.

So the Galactic Federation is lying when they say that Earth must be contained to avoid its problems and negativity from spreading throughout the galaxy, when all our evidence suggests that Earth and its problems are only a reflection of the mentality and of the worst parts of everything that is occurring off planet. And, the same way, after all that off-planet negativity is concentrated on Earth, of course it will then spread out again. But Earth is not the cause, it is only a symptom and a condenser of the mentality of the members of the Federation. As there is a collective unconscious on Earth, so there is one for each group of people, for each contained culture, therefore, there is a collective unconscious of the Galactic Federation. And I am seeing that Earth as it is being manifested from that Galactic Federation collective unconscious.

This is the part where I do agree with what the Galactic Federation is saying about all the problems of Earth and all its conflicts and sisms being manifested from the astral side of things. Of course it is because, in any case, all that is in the so-called material world is being manifested from the spirit side, and this is no exception. This would mean that to solve Earth's problem, the work must be done also from the side of the Federation, off planet and not only on Earth.

But then, there is another, more complicated level to all this, and it is that there is a collective unconscious that includes both Earth and one of the Galactic Federation member races who and which are involved with Earth, such as us, the Taygetans. Such a larger shared collective unconscious is also being generated by the mere fact that there are hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of starseeds living on Earth right now, therefore importing their belief systems, priorities and ethics to Earth as part of the everlasting conflict between good and evil. This means that many people on Earth understand both worlds, both collectives, Earth's and the stellar one.

And, for now, I am leaving the astral side of things out of this argument I am making today. Even though it is far more relevant, it may be much more difficult to understand by most people or viewers. Yet, I will share it in the second part of my video and subject about astral warriors, of which I published the first part, an introduction, just a few days ago.

But even though the general soul population of Earth is who is really manifesting everything that is going on there, from the physical side and the astral side of the spirit, even though I insist that there is no physical side, as it is only an illusion produced by an artificial narrowing of the senses and awareness, achieved with a frequency and vibration filter called the biological body. But the illusion of the material world, life and existence in the so-called world of the living persists and is very convincing.

And it is from that experimental point of view that each person with a life on Earth is led to feel helpless and powerless and a victim of circumstance and abuse of those in power, Even though the normal human population is who is manifesting their reality and, from higher, above points of view, is responsible for everything, the fact is that in the personal experience of each soul on Earth is that they do not have any power over what occurs around them, much less over larger things like wars and planetary scale problems that affect them. The feeling of powerlessness is real.

So what can anyone do about the problems on Earth? Just watch your corner, just do whatever is within your reach and your capacity. It is useless to watch news, as it only gives all that negativity more attention and more creative power to manifest more of the same. You do not need to know what is happening on the other side of the planet if it does not concern you directly, as it only lowers your much needed vibration. It is all more of the same Matrix sick game the controllers are running over you.

For example, you may be bombarded by ads and promotional videos asking for your help to solve the problems those governments created in the first place. They create the problem by exploiting the suffering of one or another group of people, and then they use it to drain the resources of the rest of the population of the planet, who is not directly affected.

Know this, Earth is being controlled by one group, where they are even exploiting you by making you think that there are different powerful groups in conflict with one another, one of which is aiming for total global control and is about to reach it with their infamous new globe mandate, if you know what I mean. But the fact is that even that is more theatre, as they already have total global control and they only play one side against the other as part of the same Matrix sick game.

From where I stand, there is no real conflict at any higher levels of society, as rivalling groups such as East versus West are only more theatre, and I can see this is so as those rivalling nations and groups of them mysteriously agree on things which are clearly false, such as the recent worldwide bug and the mandates to take dangerous things in your arm, or agree with protecting Antarctica from the general public under claims of defending nature there, where, strangely, there isn't much nature to be protected there, only a few penguins. Makes you wonder how important penguins may be, as all those rivalling nations suddenly and mysteriously agree on the prime importance of protecting those birds. Anyone with two working neurons can know that they are hiding something else there, and I assure you that it is from there where the main planetary control resides, as well as its starport connections that lead directly to the Galactic Federation.

Even though the conflicts on Earth are perfectly and undeniably real at a surface level, the reasons for those conflicts are not real and are only based on governmental and Cabal controlled propaganda for population control purposes and geoengineering. It is therefore useless to worry about global events such as nuclear whatever, more global bugs or a third world riot around the corner, if you know what I mean. Just watch your corner and mostly ignore the rest if it does not concern you directly, because if a problem does concern you, believe me, you will know on time, so there is no need to waste your time, energy and happiness on things that you cannot control and most probably don't even exist, because all the media is to control the minds of the general population and it is mostly false. And what is not false is irrelevant.

Don't give them your attention and manifestation power and do whatever you can and is in your power to help others, but only those you can help directly, because most, if not all, of those global aid organizations are just more governmental tricks to drain the population of their resources. Help all you can, but only those you can know that your help is reaching them. The rest is the responsibility of the governments who created the problems in the first place, and if they wanted, they could resolve the problem in a matter of hours or days. Remember that the real reason for war is war itself. The rest are only excuses for the general population to exploit them even more.

Stay strong out there and don't believe in any media lies, because that is all what they are: manipulation techniques to exploit the human population. Helping through government sponsored and other large organizations is only feeding the Matrix even more. And, although I felt the need to write this today, I feel I am preaching to the choir, teaching a chef to cook a simple omelette, as I know most of you are highly aware and heavily conscious and wise people.

I send a big hug and a kiss your way. I love you all and I am with you. This will be all for today. As always, thank you for watching my video and for liking, sharing and subscribing for more, it helps this channel grow a lot and I hope to see you here next time.

With much love and appreciation.

Your friend,

Mari Swa
